THROWN FROM WAGON

While riding on a wagon on the Clintonville pike Tuesday morning, Orie H. Collier, of the firm of Collier Bros., was thrown from the vehicle when the team took fright and stampeded. Roy Trotter, colored driver, jumped from the wagon, and was slightly injured about the head and shoulders.

Mr. Collier was picked up by passing motorists and brought to his home in Paris, where he was given medical attention. He was reported yesterday as resting comfortably, his injuries being painful, but not serious.

"THE BOOSTER TRIP"

Clyde Huffman, chairman of the Paris Commercial Club's "booster trip," attendance committee, states that a sufficient number of merchants have been enrolled and finances pledged to insure the success of the trip, which will start from Paris on the morning of July 19.

The newly-organized city band will accompany the "boosters," and will give a short concert at each stop made throughout the county. A business meeting of the Executive Committee was held in the offices of the Commercial Club, Wednesday night, when the plans were perfected for the trip.

MONDAY LEGAL HOLIDAY: DON'T FORGET THIS!

Next Monday will be The Glorious Fourth of July, and also Court Day. There will be no particular observance of the day, except the big picnic to be given by the P. I. McCarthy Council, Knights of Columbus, which has been extensively advertised in THE NEWS.

The banks and postoffice will be closed, the day being a legal holiday. The rural carriers will not make their rounds that day, and the usual opening and closing regulations will obtain at the postoffice. The general delivery and stamp windows will be open from 11:30 to 12:30. No business will be transacted in the money order or registry divisions.

Practically all merchants in all lines of business in Paris have agreed to close their places of business at noon, on Monday, in order to give their employees a half-holiday.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Comings and Goings of Our People Here, There and Elsewhere.

—Miss Nancy Barbee Wilson is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. W. A. Johnson, at Cherokee Inn, on the Cherokee Road, near Louisville.

—Miss Elmata Hinton and Messrs. Jack Lair and Wm. Rogers, of Paris, were guests several days this week of the Misses Phillips, in Flemingsburg.

—Rev. T. S. Smylie left Tuesday night for Ravenswood, West Va., where he will spend the summer vacation with his wife and the new arrival, a handsome son.

—Miss Jessie Mae Fee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Fee, who underwent an operation at the Massie Memorial Hospital a few days ago, has been removed to her home on Fifth street.

—Miss Vallette McClintock has returned from the University of Illinois, at Chicago, to spend the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will G. McClintock, of Pleasant street.

—Mrs. Frank B. Wright entertained a number of guests at her home on Fitch avenue, Winchester, Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Wright was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. N. H. Rion and Miss Gladys Rion, of Paris.

—Capt. N. W. Lisle is at home for a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Lisle, on Link avenue. Capt. Lisle, who for the past year has been stationed at Aberdeen, Maryland, will be located at Boston, Mass., after July 4.

—Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fee, who have been guests for several days of the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Fee, have gone to Michigan to spend the remainder of the summer. They will return in the fall to their home in Charleston, South Carolina.

—Miss Margaret Trotter the attractive house guest of Miss Ruby Jane Houston, will leave to-day for her home in Chicago. Miss Houston and Miss Louise Parrish, of Lexington, will accompany her as far as Louisville, where they will be house guests of Miss Elizabeth Carter, formerly of Paris.

—The following from Paris attended the Community Recreation program given at the Millersburg High School Wednesday night: Dr. and Mrs. M. H. Dailey, Mrs. Charles N. Pithian, Miss McIntyre, Mrs. Elizabeth Carr, Mrs. I. W. Bush, Miss Sophie Fishback, F. E. Allamang and Mr. Radecker.

—Mrs. Cassius M. Clay, Regent of the Community Chapter, requests that as many members as possible attend the celebration to be given Monday by the Bryan Station Chapter, near Lexington, and that all who attend take with them an individual lunch in a small box or package. The event will be in the nature of a picnic.

—Miss Soule Davis, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Davis, has gone to Los Angeles, Calif., where she will enter the University of California at the opening of the next semester. She will be absent about a year. Miss Davis is a graduate of the Paris High School, class of '21, and one of the most popular young women of the city. She was accompanied by Miss Ella O'Neill, of Paris, who will make an extended visit to relatives in Los Angeles.

—Members of the Jemima Johnson Chapter, D. A. R., of Paris, have received invitations worded as follows: "All members of the D. A. R. are invited to celebrate Independence Day by uniting in a picnic which will assemble about twelve o'clock, Monday, July 4, at the site of the Bryan Station Fort and Memorial Wall, five miles from Lexington, on the Bryan Station pike. A short program is being arranged. It is hoped your Chapter will be largely represented."

—Mrs. Fanniebell Sutherland's home, on South Main street, was never more attractive than on Tuesday afternoon, when Mrs. Sutherland and her charming young daughter-in-law, Mrs. Clay Sutherland, asked about two hundred guests to meet Mrs. Stanley Dickson, one of June's loveliest brides and a very recent bride in the family, Mrs. Clarence Collier Daves.

The entire lower floor, which was thrown together, was redolent with a profusion of beautiful flowers, placed in every nook and corner, making a most effective background for the many attractively gowned guests coming and going during the hours from two until five o'clock.

Mrs. Sutherland, who has a most gracious manner, greeted her guests first, and beside her stood the guest of honor, wearing her wedding gown of soft white satin, with court train. Another bride of only a few weeks was also on the receiving line, Mrs. Stanley Dickson, whose youthful beauty was emphasized by a very becoming gown of white chiffon. Mrs. Clay Sutherland wore a very lovely toilet of yellow taffeta.

Louise Dailey, lovely in a dainty pink mull frock received the cards at the door.

Miss Helen Hutchcraft served punch at a beautifully appointed table in the library, assisted by Miss Marie Collins and Miss Haggard, of Winchester. Mrs. M. H. Dailey, Mrs. Henry Power, Mrs. Buckner Woodford and Miss Elizabeth Crutcher assisted the hosts in entertaining.

The sun parlor, where refreshments were served, was presided over by four lovely young girls, friends of the hosts, just home from school for their summer vacation. They were Misses Elizabeth Clay, in blue lavender organdie, Josephine Pithian, yellow organdie, Mary May, white organdie, and Frances Kenney, white organdie.

Refreshments consisting of brick cream with pink heart centers, individual cakes and delicious confections were served.
